Dear Student:

You have made the right decision for considering a Nursing Assistant class with Healthcare School of Hawaii (HSCH) LLC. You can't go wrong by placing your trust with us. Let me tell you why.

First, the education you are aiming for is an excellent way to get started.

If you want to pursue a healthcare career, nursing assistant training is an excellent way to get started. It will provide you a base for employment and help you make future career decisions. The program will also help you develop attitudes and behaviors consistent with competent caregiver. As evidence by this, I can point to you our school's certification with the Department of Human Services, State of Hawaii Approved School, MyCAA Approved School, American Heart Association BLS provider, Heartsaver and American Red Cross First Aid/CPR/AED provider.

Second, your educational needs will be taken cared at HSCH.

During your stay with us, we will provide you training how to demonstrate fundamental skills of bedside nursing care intensively, and extensively. Such skills will help you become a sincere, compassionate, and loving caregiver.

Third, your educational growth and development underscore everything we do while you are a student at HSCH.

Our instructors will provide you the training from the most updated standard of care and best practices according to national standard. With our new and improved simulation laboratory room, you will find a constructive learning environment to engage you in active learning of nursing assistant skills. You will experience how to do a hand washing technique, hands-on training with grooming, oral care, changing bed linens, ambulating a patient, and other nursing assistant care.

Fourth, HSCH will assist you find employment.

During your classroom instructions at HSCH, employment agencies will come and present you an insight how to apply and be employed by them. Applications for employment are readily available for you at our office.

This is the start of your journey with Healthcare School of Hawaii. Please realize that we are here to walk you through out your stay with us.
